

Lunar Pisces

In astrology, your Moon is the portal to your subconscious mind & Your Lunar Self. It represents how you emote, get your emotional needs met, your subconscious & authentic self, as well as how you integrate yin energy. Your Moon sign reflects the light of your Sun sign, your life purpose, & tells you how to live out that purpose in the physical realm. It is the reflection of your soul's experience in your body. Knowing your Moon sign can help you take better care of yourself, feed yourself whatever nourishment you may not have received in childhood, & connect to your life purpose.

Fueled by the Moon in Pisces, you likely have a rich imagination, often finding yourself daydreaming, and need a variety of ways to manifest your talents throughout the day. Being creative, listening to music, and spending time in environments that encourage your intuition and creativity suit your emotional needs well.

When unbalanced, you might struggle with keeping emotional boundaries with others. This can result in codependency or a tendency for escapism when the situation gets sticky. By establishing and honouring boundaries, you can help others while knowing where you end and they begin. At times, you may also find yourself turning to tools that help you numb out or escape, such as drinking and binging food or television and projecting your needs onto others. Staying conscious of this can help you emotionally regulate by turning to healthier modalities and learning to set boundaries with others.

You may have issues expressing your emotions and honouring your own needs, which causes you to potentially people-please and feel like a martyr or victim. Your Pisces Moon desires variety, so don't be too hard on yourself by structuring a strict daily self care practice - instead, take note of what feels good intuitively and allow yourself lots of room for imagination and creativity.
